

TEFC Exhaust Tubular Motor Silencer

Features

- Solves exhaust noise problems on TEFC Motor that have exhaust ports radially on Shaft end of motor.
- Provides high attenuation
- Low back pressure
- Simple installation
- Clamshell construction provides access to Couplings, oilers, etc. without full disassembly
- Can be provided with feed-throughs for exterior oilers and temperature probes
- Custom manufactured for the exact motor Casing
- Light weight – self-supporting in most cases

Specifications

- Provides 15-20 dBA attenuation depending on motor
- Standard construction material is carbon Steel, epoxy powder coated
- Optional construction of stainless steel (Type 304 or 316) available